

Christine Stewart, AIOF (Hon. Life, Fellow)

Biography

Christine Stewart was born in Camperdown New South Wales, Australia, she is married to Ross and they live in Perth, Western Australia.

She has many years' experience working in both the private and public sector and recently in the legal profession.

Christine is an Honorary Life Member/FAIOF (Fellow) member of the Australian Institute of Office Professionals since 1982 and past Division President in 1985 and 1997, and National Conference Convenor in 1990.

She has held various positions at both the Division/National level, most recently as the National Administration Director/Company Secretary, National Editor and since 1 November 2019 National President.

Christine joined the Rotary Club of Matilda Bay in January 2001, is a Past President, Community Services Director, International Director, Past District Rotary/Rotary Chairman, and District Newsletter Editor 2018-2020 and is currently Communications Officer.

She enjoys watching most sports; also walking, entertaining and travel.